What User likes about Thai Square: Friendly staff and an extensive menu with all the usual Thai favourites. Our group of 4 shared two starter plates then ordered individual mains. The portion sizes were so generous none of us were able to finish and next time would order just three mains for the group. The restaurant was busy but service was very quick. read more. What User doesn't like about Thai Square:

This place is clearly a big favourite of the locals, as it's hard to get a table. The family that run this are great - however it's almost impossible to get to and from the table as there are so many tables crammed into the space. Try and book a table later in the evening at least 24 hours in advance, then you won't have to compete with the local old-folks who all want to eat early. The food is good, but it's over-pr...
