food is good, sweet shop has good options and good quality sweets.may be a bit slow in service when dining at restaurant.scope for improvement there in kitchen area. read more. In beautiful weather you can even eat in the outdoor area, and there is free WiFi. The rooms on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for visitors with wheelchairs or physical limitations. What User doesn't like about Harish:

The food taste is average. Service takes an unusually long time as compared to other similar outlets in the area.They could consider self-service like Haldiram or Bikanerwala. The staff needs some more training like not talking loudly amongst themselves.Compared to their eating section, the take-away bakery section is nice with soft spoken staff. They are quite efficient read more. At Harish in Dhāruhera, a selection of fine menus with original Indian spices and sides like rice or naan are freshly prepared, the guests love having the chance to watch the latest games or races on the big screen in this sports bar, while also enjoying food and drinks. The Asian fusion cuisine is likewise an important part of Harish.
