Hanami, a Japanese restaurant in Perth, seems to have mixed reviews from diners. While some guests appreciate the ambience and quality of food, others have raised concerns about the timing of their meals and the overall experience. One visitor noted that the sashimi wasn't particularly memorable, although they enjoyed the yakitori entree and miso soup. On the other hand, another reviewer praised the fresh and unpretentious Japanese dishes, such as beef tataki and pork gyoza, but felt that the tempura batter could be improved. Overall, it seems that Hanami provides a decent dining experience, but may not be the top choice for those seeking exceptional Japanese cuisine in the area.
