This joint does good fresh unpretentious Jap and ambience has gone up a notch since expansion into next door premises. Beef tataki and edamame were spot on & pork gyoza as good as any you'd get in Tokyo. My only suggestion would be tempura batter should be a little thinner. Service was brisk as you'd hope for lunch on a weekday. read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and have something in nice weather, And into the accessible rooms also come visitors with wheelchairs or physiological limitations. What Elenora Borer doesn't like about Hanami Japanese Restaurant:

Came for dinner with a fairly large group (8 people). Biggest gripe was the timing of the food which was completely off - after a 45 minute wait, 3 of the 8 mains were finally brought out, and by the time the other 5 were served (20 to 25 minutes later), half our table had already finished their meals. Not happy! Food wise, we ordered several bento boxes which were fairly standard, mixed tempura udon noodle soup (the... read more. With a lot of freshly harvested vegetables, fish and meat, the Hanami Japanese Restaurant from Mount Lawley prepares easy-to-digest, fine Japanese meals, On the menu there are also several Asian meals. The delightful Sushi such as Maki and Te-Maki however, is the undisputed highlight of this establishment, The successful fusion of different dishes with fresh and partially daring ingredients is highly valued by the customers - a nice example of Asian Fusion.
