From the moment we entered the Pavilion the staff made us feel welcome. The service was just right, not too invasive and not forgotten, and the young man that attended to us was polite and well presented. The prices are very affordable. The food is delicious. The beverages not so, which is why my rating is very good and not excellent. My hot chocolate was not hot and my mango passionfruit smoothie had not taste at al... read more.

The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and eat and drink in beautiful weather, And into the accessible rooms also come customers with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. What Jeannine Diaz doesn't like about Northbeach Pavilion:

The location is great, right on the beach, you can almost touch the sand and waves. The menu put me off at the start, no adding or taking items from the pizza menu; very upfront and almost non-friendly greeting to start with.

They have a metre-long pizza and half metre as well, very large and feeds a lot of people. Good selection of menu items, but a little pricey for what you get. I had the bruschetta and it was very... read more. The large variety of coffee and tea specialties makes a visit to Northbeach Pavilion even more worthwhile. In addition, the current games or races can be watched on the big TV in this sports bar, which the customers also love. You have the option to, after the meal (or during it), also relax at the bar with an alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink, and you can expect original Italian cuisine with classics like pizza and pasta.
