What User likes about Chick n chips Takeaway: Having a coeliac daughter means even a family basic like hot chips is normally off the list, however there are a handful of places that do cater for coeliacs and gluten intolerant people and this is one of the best around. Almost everything is gluten free meaning contamination shouldn't be an issue and there is no need to hold back. GF fish batter and crumbs, chips, chicken salt, calamari, fish bites and chicken were... read more. The diner and its rooms are wheelchair accessible and thus reachable with a wheelchair or physical limitations. What User doesn't like about Chick n chips Takeaway:

I've tried giving this place a chance because it is relatively local but the food just isn't up to scratch. Bland, soggy food with very high prices. May as well dine out with the money you can spend here. read more.
