$25 for everything you can eat and there are many vegan options, all clearly marked. it was all quite delicious, but had this light taste reduction that they often get from a buffet. What User doesn't like about Citrus:

I met a friend here for lunch and paid $20 for the All-you-can-eat option. eating was good, but nothing particularly great, quite typical quality for a lunch buffet. pappadams were not crisp, and the herbal curry was thin and inexorable. In addition, this curry shared a twin-bean marie with the fish-curry, with server pans sitting on the same plate. no good look and ripe for cross-contamination. the only plate for a...
