What User likes about Ku De Ta: there were very limited options and had to talk with a second waiter to make a clear look at their ability to make gluten free. they were able to make the riders separate and felt confident that they were fairly safe, but a lot of work needed to get a straight answer and limited options. no gluten-free brot as stated in other reviews. read more. When the weather conditions is nice you can also eat outside. Perfectly pairing with the meals of the restaurant are the fresh and succulent juices on the drinks menu, Likewise, the guests of the restaurant prefer the extensive variety of differing coffee and tea specialities that the establishment provides.
