Very delicious food! Beautiful breeze on the river bank today and excellent service. We ordered: schish share plate, wings, cheese spinach rolls, and honey pistachio pastries dessert. read more. What User doesn't like about Ashtart:

Friendly service and some good starters but the food we had for the main course was not authentically Lebanese. The chicken shish kebab was small and made from cheap, fatty thigh meat; I've always had chicken breast in the past. The flavours and spices used were also more suited to a Sunday roast than Lebanese food. My husband's chicken shwarma was equally disappointing and not in keeping with the cuisine, we were al...
