We visited this place over the Easter long weekend and it was very busy. Despite being a barramundi farm, we arrived at around 1:30pm (kitchen closes at 3pm) and were told they've run out of whole barramundi fish. Instead, we had the barramundi fillets baked in a lemon butter sauce and accompanied by chips and salad. Overall the dish was very enjoyable, fish cooked well, chips crispy and salad fresh. It was a shame t... read more.
