This place was highly recommended and the decor and feel was very traditional. The cuisine certainly was as well traditional Kristang dishes are rare to find. Kristang culture has a blend of Portuguese and Malay influences and quite a few of the dishes were similar to Peranakan style ones such as their take on Ayam Buah Keluak. I'd recommended it for the experience and feel of a traditional old school dining experien... read more. What Neil W doesn't like about The Mansion:

Food very average, not much choice for European tastes. Gym equipment broken bikes buttons not working, leg curl machine broken. Only one lift in use so long wait times especially when staff using the same lift. Bedroom comfortable. Overall a bit disappointed. read more.
