I would have given 5 stars if the food was prepared faster. Don't come once you're already starving. The Shish Taouk and Khao Suey were amazing. At first I couldn't find the chicken in the Khao Suey, the chef brought out more and personally showed me that the chicken was very thin slice almost looking like noodles. 'Chef Shacur' was incredibly patient and gave his full attention to ensure we were pleased with our... read more.
