What Oma Ward likes about Global Kitchen:

another windy, showering day in hobart ends in sunshine. amazing what it throws on you. at the wash salon (again) it was up and this house chef restaurant is located directly above the street and a bit up. In between a fast lunch is immersed and dried so little time. in the inner is a baby-marie that keeps delicious meals ready to go. chicken hot curry by vegie curry (not too hot) to indian dahl. I ordered vegie panc... read more. The place also offers the possibility to sit outside and eat and drink in beautiful weather, And into the accessible rooms also come clientele with wheelchairs or physical limitations. What Barry Zieme doesn't like about Global Kitchen:

I've heard mumblings about it for some time, good value, good food etc but since I'm not at home during weekdays and don't think to source food in my own locale often on the weekends, I'd just never got there. A break over Easter was what The Two Girls needed to visit the Global Kitchen. read more. If you're in a hurry and need something quick, you can get tasty Fast-Food dishes to your taste from Global Kitchen in Hobart, prepared for you in short time, Furthermore, the customers love the creative combination of different menus with new and partially experimental products - a nice example of successful Asian Fusion. It should not be forgotten that there is a large selection of coffee and tea specialties in this restaurant, Also, fans of Korean cuisine will be fully satisfied at the eatery with menus like Bap, Kimchi or Jjigae.
