Enjoyed a lovely sunny day in the outside area here. Ordered some extra types of jam (available seasonally- you can find the via the QR code on their menu)! But the original scone and the fig jam will continue to my all time favourite. The staff were so polite too, great day read more. When the weather conditions is nice you can also have something outside. What Jovany Nienow doesn't like about The Tea Cosy:

There were some good moments had at The Tea Cosy, but all up, the experience proved to be rather underwhelming. If you ask me, afternoon tea is equal parts about the ambience and the food, but beyond the beautiful setup, things actually felt quite patchy. The experience really suffered from the scale it operated at, and as a result things felt very mass-produced, rather than the quaintness you'd hope out of a traditi... read more. At
