Had the five course omakase with matched sake. Every course was lovely and it was nice to learn and taste more sake. However, this is not the place to go if you're a big eater. Portions were delicately sized. We paid $150 per head for dinner and matched drinks so this is a premium experience. read more. When the weather is pleasant you can also have something outside. What Keira Christiansen doesn't like about Kappo:

We went to Kappo for lunch and we had the restaurant to ourselves. We ate downstairs, at a table next to the bar. The service was excellent, our waiter explained every dish and he was attentive but not intrusive. I was a little disappointed with the food, not as interesting as I expected and mostly not that tasty. I loved the desserts (even if I don't have a sweet tooth) but the other courses were pretty average. Als... read more. The Kappo originating from Melbourne offers various fine seafood courses, On the menu there are also several Asian meals.

Watching various sports events and competitions is equally one of the highlights of visiting this sports bar. In addition, the delectable desserts of the local shine not only on children's plates or in the eyes of the little guests.
