the food was here. it is a fusion of Asian and Tasmanian foods. the oyster was fresh, the wild wallaby was on our expectation. I especially loved the black lip abalone, truffled calamari. the less part abito was small. the waitress had recommended pinot noir was in the did great wein. the price was abit expensive. What Thurman Stanton doesn't like about Stillwater Restaurant:

I recently went to StillWater for lunch. The dish i ordered was overpriced $30 for rock hard avocado, beets that tasted like they were from a can and under cooked Quinoa. The dessert (sticky date) was so dry and lacked flavour. I don't mind paying money if the quality and service is good. I think there are far better places around Launceston for quality of food read more.
