What Garret Maggio likes about Mr Benedict: Passing through town and stopped here for breakfast based on Trip Advisor recommendation. This was a Sunday morning and they were packed so could only get a table out the back which was semi outdoors with heaters - still a bit chilly for our liking. We did eventually snag an indoor table before the food arrived. So not sure if they take reservations, but be prepared to be turned away at popular times if you can't boo... read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and have something in pleasant weather, And into the accessible spaces also come clientele with wheelchairs or physical disabilities. What Audrey Pons doesn't like about Mr Benedict:

This is a busy local café with friendly, helpful service. I was seated and served quickly. Sadly the eggs benedict was just ok, likewise the coffee. A bit disappointing after reading so many amazing reviews. Perfect though for a quick feed to power up before a big drive, and kept me full most of the day. read more. At Mr Benedict from Albury you have the opportunity to enjoy delicious vegetarian menus, in which no trace of animal meat or fish was used, Additionally, they serve you typical Australian meals with ingredients like bush tomatoes and finger limes. Not to be left out is the comprehensive variety of coffee and tea specialties in this restaurant, here they serve a appetizing brunch in the morning.
