This brilliant breakfast to lunch place in an old house serves an amazing array of inventive meals served inside and out . The service is good, my shakshuka eggs were great, the snails on fritters superb , the simple eggs on toast great . Lots of local organic produce available as well as condiments , pates, sauces , meats, cakes , baked goods all looked delicious through the glass display , the coffee wasn't great t... What عدي سفا doesn't like about Le Pruneau:

Well if you like being ignored, this is the place!We came for breakfast. By the time we got menus, it was nearly lunchtime!This may sound flippant, but after 20 minutes, of being ignored, and nearly getting served, the most miserable barista, a lady with brown hair, in a ponytail, "barked" at our waiter to leave us and go and get someone?Awful, awful customer service and rude staff!We came back because it was good la...
