What User likes about My Sister Says: I love going here for coffee and cupcakes. When I say cupcakes I mean works of art really. The flavours are good without being overpowering and even though you pay a little for them, they are worth it. I had not been in a while and I love the fact you can interact with staff and not feel tucked away from the action. It had a constant stream of customers when we were there which is always a good sign of the quality o... read more. When the weather is pleasant you can also eat and drink outside. What User doesn't like about My Sister Says: Went for breakfast. My bruschetta with grilled veggies was very tasty. Coffee was good, but nothing special. The tiny cafe has max. 20 seats inside, you are really close to the cooking and barrista action, which creates a great atmosphere. There was a continuous queue for coffee take away. I was a bit disappointed by the staff. They were friendly, but by far not as welcoming and warm as in other places around. read more.
