The fish and chips were very tasty especially the fish which didn't have too much batter so was delicious with the tartare sauce. The chips were a generous serve. We didn't have to wait long and enjoyed sitting on the wharf eating them before our concert across the road. read more. In nice weather you can even eat and drink in the outdoor area, And into the accessible rooms also come clientele with wheelchairs or physiological limitations.

What User doesn't like about Mako Fresh Fish:

There are two Mako outlets in Hobart. One is a dine-in/take-away in North Hobart and the other a punt on the Hobart wharf. THIS review is about the North Hobart Mako. The food wasn't cheap but it looked good judging by dishes coming out for the few other customers there. By the time our order was taken we were the only diners left, but it still took forever for our meals to be ready. The fish was tasteless and the bat... read more.
