My old parents and I had decided that this was where we wanted dinner. Place was packed but we could sit to the side drink a drink and relax, while waiting for a table to free up. Our young waiter was a little new but, dinner was delicious and worth waiting for: both plates of food were perfect. Desert wasn't half bad either! read more. In beautiful weather you can even have something in the outdoor area, And into the accessible spaces also come customers with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. What User doesn't like about Chow! A Taste of South East Asia:

This is a very busy and popular eatery on the waterfront. Day 1 I ordered seafood laksa which was great full of flavour and seafood. Day 2 I ordered crispy banh mi which was extremely disappointing. The roll wasn't particularly crispy. The filling was very poor with hardly any pickled vegetables, mayo or herbs. There was zero chilli. The pork itself was okay. Worse was the 25 minute wait for the order and the $14 pri... read more. In DARWIN CITY, traditional menus are prepared in the kitchen of Chow!
