Stopped in for a quick coffee and morning tea. The location is sublime overlooking the river and the building just full of history. Have a great eclectic shop. The coffee was great and the cakes fresh and delicious. read more. In beautiful weather you can even have something in the outdoor area. What User doesn't like about Savannah on Swan:

Looks amazing from the outside, decorated well but very cramped seating. Had breakfast with family. The pancakes and berries were three small flat pancakes covered in warm berries. The ice cream was the best part. I had expected fluffy pancakes but these were very lacking in texture and flavour. The bacon was fatty and the fried eggs still had parts of the white runny. Apparently the milkshake was ok and served in the... read more.
