Staying in Adelaide for some reason was hanging for Indian food. We drove down Torrens and came across this little place AMAZING. We had Beef Korma, plain rice and naan bread and it was only $20!!!! Yum yum will be back here again read more. The restaurant and its rooms are wheelchair accessible and thus reachable with a wheelchair or physical limitations. What User doesn't like about Spicy Garden Indian Cuisine:

The 'food' here is appalling. Tasteless - expensive - and takes an AGE to get it. There are so many issues going on here its hard to know where to start. The service is atrocious - they run around a filthy kitchen like headless chickens. Stress levels are sky high and the atmosphere is tense. It's almost as if you, as a customer, have come along to ruin their day. Once was enough. NEVER AGAIN. read more. At Spicy Garden Indian Cuisine in Kilkenny, typical Indian spices delicious dishes with sides like rice or naan are freshly prepared, The guests also rave about the delicious, airy flatbread that can be dipped into the homemade hummus or a yoghurt dip; the intense combination of figs with goat cheese is also one of the top-picks from the diverse cuisine of the Middle East. You can also look forward to scrumptious vegetarian cuisine.
