What User likes about Koala Tavern: The food here was of a very high standard but, more than anything else, the level of service was brilliant. I must follow a gluten free diet so dining out can be a minefield. The staff member who served me was very understanding of my issues, knew exactly what items on the menu were suitable, right down to the fact that the fries had a wheat flour coating. when my meal was delivered to the table with a pot of tartar... User doesn't like about Koala Tavern:

Very disappointing I rang yesterday to ask if we could bring our puppies while we have a drink for tradies on a Friday afternoon. We were told there is an outside area and that was fine to bring them. After having a couple of drinks...a lady manager came out and told us we could not have any dogs there or minors. After explaining we rang and was told we could, she said no. Guess we will never return here. The table n... read more.
