Pretty good lunch option. Many different noodle and rice bowls. I had the Singapore noodles. They were made right in front of you and were incredibly delectable. I also had the fried vegetarian spring rolls and they were packed with flavor. Maybe some of the best spring rolls I've ever had. Only issue I had with this place was that when we were getting ready to pay it took a while to get the bill and we couldn't get... read more. What User doesn't like about Noodle World:

It was supposed to be a nice surprise for my wife to try Pad Thai for the first time, but this dish turned out to be a try-hard thrown together something difficult to describe, no where near what it should have been. This place prides its self on cooking favourite dishes from around SE Asia, but fails dismally. My something chinese dish was just as bad. The lesson from this experience is this....go to Thai place for Tha... read more.
