What User likes about Scutti:

Scutti Markets on Angelo is a coffee shop cum delicatessen on the corner of Angelo Street and Coode Street, South Perth, directly opposite Wesley College. You can sit outside or inside, but on a fine, mild day outside is a good place to get some sun. The coffee is excellent, I had a double shot caffe latte, which was just right, plus an almond wafer, which was served with the coffee. The cafe is a popular place with... read more. In pleasant weather you can even eat and drink in the outdoor area, And into the accessible spaces also come visitors with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. What User doesn't like about Scutti:

Scutti's has been around for ages like that distant uncle slightly shabby and a bit creepy. News in, the business has been sold, so lets hope the new owners can time warp the establishment to the future, and yes that includes the prices (and clean the place as well). The place would do well if transported back to Siege of Stalingrad 1941, even then the prices would have to tumble down read more. The Scutti from South Perth serves meals that you can find all over Europe, here they serve a comprehensive brunch for breakfast. In addition to sweet pieces, cakes, and simple snacks, we also have cold and hot drinks, and you can expect original Italian cuisine with classics like pizza and pasta.
