What User likes about McDonald's: We were doing the drive north, and even though it was dinner time during the school holidays (Monday), it was surprisingly quiet here. You can place your order via an electronic screen, or in person via one of the staff. I found it a pity that they don't have an entire menu on display at the front counter, even upon request they couldn't provide this, but could only look up prices for individual items. The restaurant... read more. The restaurant and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus usable with a wheelchair or physiological disabilities, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and eat and drink. WLAN is available without additional charges. What User doesn't like about McDonald's:

This is our regular first pitstop on our way from Perth to our fusing destinations, when we travel. Generally we arrive early morning so to have breakfast and a well deserved coffee. This was good as it usually is with fast service and fast food. It's always good to have a read of the daily newspaper whilst you enjoy the short break from driving. Also there is lots of parking for cars with trailers or caravans. Unfort... read more. A visit to McDonald's is particularly valuable due to the comprehensive selection of coffee and tea specialties, The magical desserts of the local also shine not only in the eyes of our little guests. Most dishes are prepared in a short time for you and served, there are also delectable vegetarian menus on the menu.
