Great fish and chips shop, I grew up two streets up near the railway line and went to East Warrnambool Primary School across the road. I used to get 2 and 5 cent lollies from the corner shop one door up. I live in Melbourne now but would go as far as to say East Warrnambool Fish Shop would compete with the best. Check out the Southern Right Whale mural on the wall next door. Do yourself a favour and go on to check ou... read more.

What User doesn't like about East Warrnambool Fish Shop:

It is a take away shop which, besides serving fish and chips. also serves burghers , souvlakis and sandwiches. It looked like a family run fish and chips business to me with three generations of the family at the serving counters. There were specials like flake and chips plus potato cakes plus dim sims for one or for two. We chose the package for two and asked for slight variation like having a Blue Grenadier and a F...
