Staff were enthusiastic and the food was great. We both has the Blue Moose Breakfast - the portions were generous and well cooked. The Blue Moose Mountain coffee was lovely too. read more. When the weather conditions is nice you can also eat outside, And into the accessible rooms also come visitors with wheelchairs or physiological limitations. What User doesn't like about Clean Slate Cafe:

My coffe took 20 minutes to arrive and definitely wasn't worth the wait. Potato rosti was so over cooked it was black, but they still magically managed to retain all the grease. Waitress was very friendly, but service generally was incredibly poor. The serving of banana bread was the smallest I've ever seen in my life and should be entered into the Guinness book of records.
