The food here was lovely, not the cheapest but excellent flavours. The building itself is fascinating, lead glass windows and timber window seats, and ceilings of embossed plaster. The lady who runs the restaurant was very friendly and helpful, a nice place to be on a cold Dubbo night read more. In pleasant weather you can even be served in the outdoor area, and into the accessible spaces also come customers with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. What User doesn't like about Lime Thai Restaurant:

It's a decent restaurant. The taste is fine, not splendid but I wasn't expecting a lot in Dubbo. My spicy flat noodles were really spicy but I managed somehow. All the other food was fine, no complaints. The only issue we faced was extended delay after ordering the food but I guess that was due to a lot of customers and the take away orders that I didn't see being placed over the phone before I arrived. With typical Asian spices delicious traditional menus are prepared in the kitchen of Lime Thai Restaurant in Dubbo, The successful fusion of different dishes with fresh and partially daring ingredients is highly valued by the guests - a good example of Asian Fusion. After the meal (or during it), you can still relax at the bar with a alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink, The magical desserts of the local also shine not only on children's plates and in children's eyes.
