We decided on Sushi Train for a quick meal. Restaurant small so had to wait a while for a seat. Suggest arriving at about 6pm for 7.30pm to avoid waiting too long. We arrived at 7pm and had to wait about 20 minutes. Sushi was super fresh and amazing. A la Carte orders were delivered quickly. Quality of food was really very very good and lots of variety. Was surprised when we got the bill as the family ate a huge amount... read more. We had to beg someone to come take our order off the menu. The train seems like it moves faster when it gets to the back of the restaurant - we sat at the last table and found it difficult to get anything off the train without crashing into other plates! Once we finally got the specific items we wanted, we were impressed! The sushi was really quite good. A friend ordered the teriyaki chicken, and honestly, it was a b... read more.
