We went here for lunch after going to the nearby Peel Zoo. It was open at 11.30 on the day we went, which was great. As we walked in, it was great to see this restaurant is 'fin free' meaning they do not support the shark fin soup cruelty. I have never been here before, so I was pleasantly surprised to see a few tofu dishes on the menu. The lady, owner I presume, was very nice. Everyone got their dishes and then I was... read more. I just purchased curry from ken and angies, completly disgusted in there food and customer service!! First off the curry was like soup with no flavour and undercooked chicken I then rang to discuss this and Angie took the phone and started yelling down the phone that curry is like soup and she was to busy to deal with me and then hung up without me getting a word in. I'm disgusted this business even runs and am a reg... read more.
