The food here is great. There is a good variety for breakfast available and it's all very fresh. The service is also great-the staff are very friendly. The only shame is that they aren't open long-if at all-on weekends, making this somewhere I can only get to on those rare days off. Worth it though! read more. When the weather is good you can also be served outside. What User doesn't like about Urban Pantry:

We attended for a small office chat before attacking the day. The place is small and we had to move a few tables together to fit all of us in. The staff did not mind and assisted us with all our needs. The food was nice and the coffee was good but not great. Thank you to all the staff. The only draw back is the size of the cafe.
