We have been going to this local restaurant 4 to 5 times a year since 2008 and the experience gets better and better. The food is authentic and they do a great goat curry and fantastic garlic narn. They have upgraded the decor from basic no frills kitchen table to real tablecloths! The service is friendly and fast and last visit the chef took the time to visit every table for feedback. Prices are very reasonable and... read more. In pleasant weather you can even be served in the outdoor area. What User doesn't like about Claridges Indian Restaurant: Food was ok. I had the the chicken madras and the gravy was great but the chicken was bland. It appears that the chicken was just cooked in the gravy and had not been marinated before cooking. read more.
