A great cafe in the heart of the suburbs. A solid range of gluten free options all of which are served in a really creative way (we do eat with our eyes after all). Everything here is brilliant, food, service, coffee and prices are very reasonable. read more. In beautiful weather you can even eat and drink in the outdoor area. What User

doesn't like about The Little Elephant:

I went there Sunday morning for brunch. It was quite busy so service was on the slow side. Plenty of gluten free options. I ordered gluten free toast but unfortunately was served normal toast. If I didn't request the waiter check

I would have had a severe allergic reaction and had a nice trip to hospital. Very disappointed. I doubt it will go again. read more. The Little Elephant from Cheltenham is a good option for a bar if you want to have a drink after work and sit with friends or alone, Furthermore, you can get sweet treats, cake, simple snacks and chilled refreshments and hot beverages here. If you want to have breakfast, a hearty brunch awaits you, Additionally, they provide you typical Australian menus with products like bush tomatoes and finger limes.
