A great little wine bar in Darwin, would not be out of place in Melbourne or Sydney. Very popular location with a broad selection of wines with no real competition in Darwin. read more. The diner is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physiological limitations, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and be served. What User doesn't like about Stone House Wine Bar & Kitchen:

They're trying and failing to be a Melbourne-like southern wine bar. Good points: wine is ok. Bad points: plastic furniture , a view of a parking lot, an awful "sweet home Alabama" type soundtrack playing at full blast presumably to try to lure in baby boomers but total at odds with everything else. The menu includes the words "trilogy" and "goosey" I went there solo and was treated fairly much like the unloved cousin... read more. If you want to satisfy your hunger for something sugary the French way, you can certainly try one of the many diverse wafer-thin crêpes, the menu also includes delicious vegetarian dishes. You have the option to, after the meal (or during it), also relax at the bar with an alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink, this sports bar is a favourite among the customers, who enjoy not only the fantastic food and drinks, but also the opportunity to watch the latest games or races on the big screen.
