Remember to try that back when I went to school in westwood and thought it was the perfect day to try it again was not disappointed! the ingredients are fresh, service is fast, and the result is delicious. for the lamb meat balls you paid something extra, and I think it was worth it. I recommend loading on the unlimited side for more buck for her buck! also they have an outside seat on the road now, which is great fo... read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and have something in beautiful weather. What User doesn't like about Cava: they have spoken here with a friend who told me that they have a lot of vegan options. none of the standard bowls were vegan and most employees did not know which ingredients had animal products. I also had to repeat the instructions several times, as the bowl was passed on to various employees, as they only have to receive cards with the ingredients from prefabricated bowls and have to be reminded of changes in thei...
