This is one of the best breweries in Portland it is a must to visit place because the bike meets 3D art vibe, the various well made beer there to drink or home in cans, the wonderful special seasonals such as the Abominable, the helpful attentive staff and of course the wonderful food. Had a great time for a special occasion and the place is child-friendly. You have a large room for 30 guests on the back and this is... read more. The diner and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus reachable with a wheelchair or physiological limitations, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and have something. What amber cannon doesn't like about Hopworks Urban Brewery:

Saw Hopworks mentioned in a couple blogs when researching what to do/where to eat with a toddler/young kid in Portland, and the blogs did not lie! I was sold when I read that there were multiple kid play areas there (think less McDonald's play area and more mud kitchen, books, and open play type toys). Our daughter had the best time, and we met so many awesome parents as our kids played together. Our server, Heather,... read more. If you're craving some spicy South American cuisine, you've come to the right place: exquisite menus, cooked with fish, seafood, and meat, though corn, beans, and potatoes are also in the menu, Also, you shouldn't miss out on the delicious pizza, traditional freshly baked in a wood oven. Look forward to the enjoyment of tasty vegetarian meals, Naturally, you should also taste the delicious burgers, accompanied by sides like fries, salads, or wedges served.
