We arrived late on Good Friday, hadn't been told about the office being closed but worked out we had to check in next door and walk back. The lady on call was helpful and friendly. Nice and clean, well appointed room with smart TV, cold a/c, fridge and coffee making facilities. Beds were a bit firm but that was fine. Ample close parking, walking distance to food options. Would stay here again when back in Isa. read more. The restaurant and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus reachable with a wheelchair or physical disabilities, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and be served. What User doesn't like about Isa: coeliac foresight. menu says gluten-free options, but the personal has no warning. Gluten-free eating served with potato precious stones and broth-based muffin. notified worker when ordering was placed on the stand of my wife. that was not passed on. when the complaint was made, general lack of knowledge was shown. the meal has been replaced, but no offer of refund. read more. Isa from Mount Isa is a good option for a bar if you want to have a beer after work and hang out with friends, Inthemorning a delicious brunch is offered here. It should not be forgotten that there is a comprehensive variety of coffee and tea specialties in this restaurant, Here, the barbecue is freshly cooked on an open flame.
