This is a fantastic place. Everything had a vegan option and the food was delicious. Very fresh. Owner speaks Korean English and Spanish so it's easy to order. read more. In nice weather you can even have something in the outdoor area. What User doesn't like about Ay Mamita:

they had only a vegan option, except guacamole tacos vegan and it seemed as if they had taken away the soy meat option. it was just a few guacamole, tomaten, wobble and a piece ananas with salsa roja. and they charge 500won for cilantro. and I had to pay 1,500 women extra to make it a bit spicier. it was not a good value for money, but the spot has cool mood, friendly staff and a clear vegan option.
