What User likes about Foxy Luus: the eating is delicious, I had the gyoza they were absolutely amazing (but I was not yet in asia.) I also had edamame that were good and the Indonesian Gado-gado (not quite the name), the salat, it was delicious! it's expensive, but not so much superior, it's in bryon! read more. When the weather is pleasant you can also eat outside, And into the accessible rooms also come guests with wheelchairs or physiological limitations. What User doesn't like about Foxy Luus:

nice cozy mood here but eating is generally the type of things that would get them from a food truck, which it looks like it was earlier (they use the same ingredients for most of the dishes vegan gyoza were only packages that were heated again. only 6 dings on the menu that are vegan 2 bases, a nudelsalat, gyoza and a vegan Bento box. At the moment many are thinking about a healthier diet; specifically for these Foxy Luus's menu provides a wide diversity of easy to digest menus, on the menu there are also a lot of Asian dishes. The Asian fusion cuisine is also an important part of Foxy Luus. Anyone who finds the normal and generally known menus too boring should approach with a willingness to experiment and try some unexpected combination of ingredients taste, Also, the guests of the restaurant love the large selection of various coffee and tea specialities that the establishment has to offer.
