The Silo Café is the place where Australia Day is held every weekend, where the 'Great Aussie Breakfast' has not been bumped out of fashion by righteous diners. It's a place where 'everyman' can eat like a king and wash the meal down with one of the best coffees in town. read more. What User doesn't like about The Silo Cafe Carrara Markets:

Didn't get to taste the food, so can't comment on that. Walked in to an empty cafe at 615am on Saturday 24.12. As soon as my 2 year old son chose the table, I grabbed a high chair, sat him in it and started to look at the menu. Within seconds, a lady came and slapped a reserved sign on the table and said we had to move, as a customer of 10 years always sits here. Who the fuck does that? You can jam your business up y...
