What User likes about The Flying Bear: We had a wonderful lunch here. It is nicely located alongside Milson Park with views out into the bay. The service was great, the food good and the dining room has a nice modern fitout. read more. The diner and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus usable with a wheelchair or physiological limitations, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and eat. What User doesn't like about The Flying Bear: I saw the chef who does what I can only describe as someone who stabbed in their hands. I understand that no gloves are better for food safety, but it was a little frightening to watch the cooking finger, their speck and egg roll intimate. Do not really think that it is wise to put their fingers over eating while a large amount of customers are looking up. read more.
