I've been looking forward to coming here for a while since Springwood has lacked good Italian food. The first time I went to get some takeaway. I must say the food was good but I had to wait an hour for my order (and it was midweek !! The second time I dined in. The service from the waitress was excellent. However, there were mouse droppings all around us. It was disgusting and ruined the hard work that the employees... read more. In
