like about Maru Korean Japanese:

This is a slightly strange place but very clean tidy and friendly. Seems to be a fusion of Japanese and Korean cuisine. The octopus takoyaki balls were amazingly good. We prefer Osaka style okonomiyaki and our way is with cheese and shrimps which were not an option. Miso soup was unusual but lovely. At lunch time they had run out of sashimi as well as rice which are really two staples of a Japanese restaurant. Overall... read more.
