First time here for teppanyaki dinner. Located in Okura hotel, an exquisite hotel with a very quiet environment (in a good way). The restaurant is located on the 24th floor giving it a view of the city at night. There were only 3 tables for teppanyaki so it is advised to make a reservation. The course I had got crab salad for appetizer with sauteed vegetables. Salad was cold and fresh. Vegetables tasted really clean... read more. The restaurant is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physical disabilities. At Yamazato in Bangkok, there's a delicious brunch for breakfast where you can eat as much as you want enjoy, The guests of the restaurant are also thrilled with the large variety of differing coffee and tea specialities that the restaurant offers. Furthermore, they serve you delicious seafood menus, and it's made with lots of freshly harvested vegetables, fish and meat, healthy Japanese meals prepared.
