Best scallops ever! It was worth the wait. They were quite slow in replenishing the scallops. I was able to get one piece and waited for a long time. We were almost done with the entire dinner when they refilled the scallops station. I enjoyed the salmon head, crispy crablets and crispy mall shrimps. The kare-kare and adobo rice were delicious too. The shrimp tempura is ok, but it should be called Camaron Rebosado an... read more. What User doesn't like about Port:

It's okay. Food not a lot of variant but it's tolerable. Ambience is okay. We went there for lunch. Service okay. However, my friend asked for a refill for scallops and one of the staff said it's already out of stocks. Few minutes later, a plate of baked scallops was serve to the next table just right beside us. What an insult and a turnoff. read more. The catering service is also provided by the restaurant for its visitors, Among the customers, especially flavorful juices are highly sought after. Not to be left out is the comprehensive diversity of coffee and tea specialties in this locale.
