What John Sivanesan likes about Low Yong Moh:

Cozy little kopitiam, as they just opened back up they had limited seating but the servers and owner were very focussed and will cater to you because of that. Very friendly and cozy service! Dim sum was good my favourite were the pork wrapped in pandan leaves and the durian mochi they offered were also very good. The mochi skin was thin and the filling was filled to the brim. The durian filling was also very fresh! read more. What Jane Wan

doesn't like about Low Yong Moh:

One of the dumplings were delicious, but service is poor, and there are no ice in the shop. No milk too. So your drinks are all hot, and with no milk (means Teh O, Kopi O etc). Not great for the malacca hot weather. There's always a Q too, and 4 adults came up to about RM90. read more. With the comprehensive variety of coffee and tea specialties, a visit to Low Yong Moh becomes even more attractive, On the daily specials there are also several Asian dishes. The Asian fusion cuisine is also an important part of Low Yong Moh. Anyone who finds the normal and generally known dishes too boring should approach with a willingness to experiment and try some unexpected combination of ingredients eat, Many customers are especially looking forward to the experience of versatile, delicious Chinese cuisine.
