What Jane Moorthy likes about J J Corner: Delicious! Portugese grilled fish is not too spicy, all food is fresh and worth the price. Chicken fritter is really nice. Mango drink at the stall just outside of this restaurant is so refreshing, it's blended using raw mango and add in sour plum. Must try! read more. What Jane Tan doesn't like about J J Corner:

Ive tried their food here. Food is good, just too expensive for me. You need to hv at least rm150 with you for 2pax. You can also try stall 88, they're quite good. Better portion and price. Actually most shops here hv similar taste when it comes to food. So wht you need to find is the best price and portion. All the best read more. The succulent and fresh juices on the drinks menu supremely enhance the meals in the restaurant, Moreover, one can find an very good diversity of various Malaysian national dishes such as Wantan, Roti, Naan and also Ayam on the menu. Finally, the most famous national dishes from Portugal can also be found on the menu - this includes not only the most varied fish dishes; the presentation is also part of the experience, offering a vibrant arrangement on the plate, on the daily specials there are also a lot of Asian menus.
