What User likes about Burma Bistro: Good place for foreigners who want to try myanmar traditional food.They innovate the dish. The dish name are very beautiful.It has small music stage show every Friday night. Good place to take photos. Good service. A little expensive. read more. What Nyein Z doesn't like about Burma Bistro:

Ambience with vintage look. Chicken Curry is good and portion is okay to share for two. Eggplant curry with masala smell, it should be cooked a bit more to make it disappeared. Assorted vegetable plate didn't meet the expectation and not attractive at all, it should include more variety of veggies than that. Tea is okay. Price is a bit overrated. Food should be improved to be in line with price. Overall Rating (out o... read more. Admirable is this small yet fine Bistro, not only for its ambience, but also for its range of typical, delicate menus usually at reasonable prices, Furthermore, the visitors love the successful combination of different meals with new and partially experimental ingredients - a nice example of successful Asian Fusion. Of course, the most various ingredients are also used in the most innovative combinations and variations - according to the motto of the Fusion Cuisine within the offers, Furthermore, the customers of the establishment enjoy the large selection of the differing coffee and tea specialities that the restaurant has available.
